The QCC Writing Center presents

24-hour e-Tutoring for your Writing!

An easy-to-use Quick Look guide to the Tiger Write e-tutoring system

Revised for Fall, 2018
The Tiger Write Quicklook! sees light due to the creative efforts of the following persons in conceiving, testing, and modifying the Tiger Write system:

Mark Rabinovich
Tiger Write Web Developer

Joseph Labozzetta
Academic Resource Center Manager

and all of the CWC tutors and students who have contributed their thoughts and ideas to help make Tiger Write a working reality for the QCC community

What is Tiger Write?

Tiger Write is a completely free, web-based e-learning system to help QCC students with their writing. Students can use Tiger Write to get feedback on their papers.

The Tiger Write system is asynchronous, meaning students and tutors do not need to be online at the same time because it is not a live service. QCC students can submit paper drafts or revisions to Tiger Write, and an e-tutor will respond within 48 hours.

If you have any questions about Tiger Write, please call the Campus Writing Center at 718-631-6663 or send an email to cwc@qcc.cuny.edu.

Using Tiger Write for the first time

Students no longer need to register for a Tiger Write account. All current QCC students who have a CUNY First account already have a Tiger Write account! Just follow these steps:

1. Go to www.qcc.cuny.edu/write

2. Click on “Tiger Write Online tutoring.”

3. Click on “Tiger Write e-Learning.”
4. Click on “I am a QCC Student.”

5. Then, just enter the same First Name, Last Name and ID Number you have on your One Card.

When you log in, Tiger Write will take you to the Writing Clinic section.
What is the Writing Clinic?

This is where you can:

- submit your writing assignments to an e-tutor
- check your e-tutors’ feedback

Let’s look at those options one at a time.

How to submit a new writing assignment to an e-tutor

STEP 1:

Click here to send your writing to an e-tutor!
STEP 2:

What class is this paper for? If you're submitting a resume, cover letter, or scholarship essay, select that option. (Tiger Write knows which courses you're currently taking!)

After selecting your course, click “submit.” If your course is not listed, go to step 3.

STEP 3:

If your course is not listed, use this option, select your course, and don’t forget to click “submit” when you are done!
STEP 4:

Here’s where you tell your e-tutor what your professor asked you to do. This helps the e-tutor know if your paper fulfills the assignment.

Upload your paper to Tiger Write by clicking “Choose File.” Browse your computer and select the file you want to send to an e-tutor.

If you have trouble uploading your paper, you can type (or copy and paste) it here.

Give your assignment a brief title like “Nursing Care Plan” or “Analysis of Macbeth.”

What do you think about your writing? What do you want to find out? Remember: the more specific you are, the more helpful your e-tutor can be!

Is this your first draft? Second? Third? If this is your second or third draft, the e-tutor will look at your previous drafts to give you the best possible feedback!

Don’t forget to click “Submit” when you’re done!
How to see my e-tutors’ feedback

After you submit a writing assignment to an e-tutor, you can expect a response in less than 48 hours.

How do you see your e-tutor’s response? It’s easy!

When you log back into Tiger Write, just go straight to the Writing Clinic.

STEP 1:

After you click on “I want to see my e-tutors’ feedback,” you’ll see a list of all the assignments you’ve submitted, the dates, and whether your e-tutors’ responses are ready yet.
STEP 2:

If an e-tutor hasn’t started working on your writing yet, you can cancel it.

Click a title to see your writing and your e-tutor’s comments. Purple titles mean you’ve already checked the comments; blue titles mean you haven’t seen them yet.
